Check out/ Departure

Check out will begin at 11 AM for overnight camps. We will have a concert at 10:00 AM in the Manastash Lodge families are welcome and encouraged to attend. After our closing concert, check out will occur near the lower parking lot.

Check-out consists of the following:

- Every camper must check out with their pick up person. The counselor will ask for ID and will have this person sign their check out sheet.
- Collecting any leftover store money.
- Collecting any medications
- Checking lost and found
- Checking out at the exit in your vehicle. Our staff will record the license plate number and ask for ID again.

Payment and Forms

All camp balances are due 2 weeks prior to the start of your camper's week of camp. Please pay balances online or submit a check directly to Lazy F Camp at the following address:

Lazy F Camp and Retreat Center
16170 Manastash Rd
Ellensburg, WA 98926

Make sure you have filled out all the necessary forms to register your camper for their week of camp. You can double check that all your information is correct at <https://pnwcamps.campbrainregistration.com/>

Store

The Camp Store will be open for campers throughout the week and includes the following items: snacks and drinks ($1.50 each), apparel (shirts, hats, sweatshirts ranging $12 – $35), water bottles, stuffed animals, etc. You can set up a store account online while registering your camper (card only) or create a store account at check in once you get to camp (cash only). This allows the money to stay out of the cabins, where it can get misplaced.

Medical Information

Emergencies and Illnesses at Camp

In the event of a family emergency, please call our office and we will make sure your camper receives any emergency communication. In the event of lost or missing persons, evacuation, fire, or other natural disaster, parents will be notified by phone. For a medical emergency, serious incident, or illness at camp, we will make every effort to call you. Please make sure our numbers for you and any emergency contacts are correct and up-to-date. In the event that out-of-camp health care is utilized, the camp will provide you with a written summary, including information such as:

- Nature of illness or health concern
- Name, address and telephone number of provider
- Diagnosis and prognosis of the provider
- Description of health care given by the camp staff
- Recommendations for follow-up care at home.

Normally, we will not contact you for routine health care problems, (i.e., skinned knees, insect bites, upset stomach, etc.) that are not severe or do not require the additional attention of an out-of-camp health care provider. In these instances, the Standing Orders of the camp physician will be followed and it will be logged . Please contact us if you require a practice different from what is described above.

A NOTE ON ILLNESSES: Please call us if your child is contagious and cannot come to camp on check-in day. We will gladly accept them at camp a day late once they can no longer transfer their illness.

Medications

We take the administration of medications very seriously at camp. Here are some things to make sure you have when you come to check-in:

- All prescription medications in original containers with written directions for dispersal from the prescribing physician (We cannot vary from doctor's orders).
- Only the amount needed for camp plus a few extras
- All other non-prescription medications, ointments, and vitamins in original containers with signed instructions for dispersal from the camper's parents or guardians.
- ALL MEDICATION must be turned into our health care provider at check-in!

Camp Life

Electronics

Camp is a place for face-to-face communication! Please leave all phones, ipads, tablets, cameras, game players, etc. at home. Any electronic devices accidentally brought to camp will be sent home with the parent or stored in the safe in the office.

PHOTOS: We may have some counselors who will be taking pictures of camp activities, these will be sent out with a link after camp is over.

Dress Code

Our dress code is very similar to that of public schools. All campers should dress in camp-appropriate attire that does not depict the following: violence, gangs, tobacco, drugs,

Tips for a Successful Week

Camp can be a wonderful experience for campers, and many return year after year and think of Lazy F as a second home. In order to provide the best experience for your camper that we can, there are a few things that you, as parents, can help us with.

1. Please encourage your campers to set realistic expectations for the week – making new friends, trying new activities, and learning new things are all part of camp and we hope that campers come ready and open to new experiences.
2. Please let your camper(s) know that we expect everyone (campers, staff, and volunteers) to respect others, themselves, and the environment while at camp. We do not tolerate bullying and intentional endangerment. Both are grounds for dismissal. Parents will be notified if any unacceptable behaviors occur at camp.
3. Please inform our office of any out-of-the-ordinary behaviors we might see from your camper and share any tips or strategies that you've noticed work well. We recognize that you know your camper better than anyone and we'd love to use strategies at camp that help your camper be as successful at home as they can be at camp!

Communication

Communicating with your Camper

Letters! While sending and receiving letters is a dying art form; this isn't true at camp! Parents can send letters throughout the week or bring letters for their camper at check-in. If you bring or send letters, please include the following in the address:

1. Camper Name and Camp Name
2. Order in which you'd like them given out written on the envelope.

Please note: Be sure to send letters with ample time of them getting to your camper. Mail takes anywhere from 3-5 days to get from camp, even if you are in the Ellensburg area.

You can also send emails to your camper at lazyfcampers@gmail.com. Please include your Camper, Camp Name, and Group in the subject line (Ex. John Smith, Challenge 1, Green group). We print emails around 4:30pm to give out at dinner

If you'd like your camper to write letters home, please send them with pre-addressed, pre-stamped envelopes and paper, to increase your chances of them writing to you!

Please do not send candy, food, gum, etc. through the mail. If snacks are received they will be stored in a safe place away from where pests can get them and returned at the end of the week.

PHONE CALLS: You are welcome to call to check-in on your child – we will check in with their counselor and get back to you, but campers are not allowed to call home. Why? Every summer camp director knows that if you take a perfectly happy summer camper and let them call home, they will instantly miss you and home. We, of course, make exceptions in emergency situations.

Communicating with Camp

Please call our office with any questions, concerns, or information before, during, or after your camper's week of summer camp. We try to return messages as soon as possible. Please understand that during the summer, answering messages might take us a little longer. We thank you in advance for your patience.

For further information about our camp's accommodations, meals, or programs, please visit us online at www.lazyfcamp.org.

Media

We do not have a dedicated media manager on site, but counselors may take pictures of your camper's experience and activities. Some of these photos will be shared on our social media pages if you give permission during the registration process. The rest will be shared with you via a link that will be given at the beginning of the week and updated daily throughout.
